Profile:

Board Certified in Construction Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, Clayton Utkov's practice focuses on both the transactional and dispute resolution aspects of construction law. He represents general contractors, subcontractors, owners, developers and suppliers in all matters, from drafting and negotiating construction contracts to complex construction disputes, including contract disputes, performance and payment disputes, delay claims, design and construction defects, and bond and lien claims. He represents clients on public projects, including highway projects, schools, hospitals and waste water treatment facilities, and private projects, including hotels, multi-family developments, industrial facilities and office projects. Clayton has experience resolving issues for his clients through negotiations, mediation, arbitration, and litigation in both state and federal court.

Clayton also has an active construction-focused alternative dispute resolution practice; he serves as an arbitrator and is a credentialed mediator with the Texas Mediator Credentialing Association.

Clayton is based at the firm's Central Texas office location in Austin.

Representative Experience:

- Represents multiple national and international Prime Contractors in both contentious and non-contentious matters related to infrastructure construction. Contentious work includes negotiation, mediation, arbitration, and litigation with public owners as well as subcontractors and suppliers related to payment, delays, scope of work, and defective design and construction. Non-contentious work includes analysis and negotiation of contracts.
- Represented general contractor in a bet-the-company lawsuit involving delay and defective work claims by the owner exceeding $13 million, and wrongful termination claims by the general contractor of nearly $8.5 million. The case involved as many as 50 other parties.
- Defended general contractor and individual indemnitors in claims by surety for almost $7 million related to bond claims. As part of a favorable settlement, the clients paid a small fraction of the claimed damages.
- Represented general contractor seeking payment for extended general conditions and unapproved change orders in arbitration against a project owner. The owner sought damages for delays and defective construction. The case was resolved with a significant payment to the client.
- Represented general contractor who entered into more than 50 contracts to perform emergency services work as a result of hurricane damage on the coast. The disputes arose with subcontractors and related entities; all were successfully resolved in litigation for the contractor.
- Defended prime contractor against owner claims related to defective construction of retaining walls designed by the Texas Department of Transportation.
- Represented landscape architect in arbitration against project developer for payment. The Arbitrator awarded a full recovery, including damages, and legal costs, to the landscape architect.
- Represented prime contractor in negotiations with its surety and the United States Corp. of Engineers after the termination of the prime contractor from a design build project for USACE.
- Represented prime contractors in payment claims against municipalities.
- Represented national specialty contractor in negotiations with the United States Corp. of Engineers for equitable adjustment and claims by USACE of defective work.
- Represented owner in claims against its general contractor related to defective flooring.
- Represented general contractor in claims against steel subcontractor related to defective coating of exterior steel.
- Represented general contractor in claims against multiple subcontractors relating to defective waterproofing of multiple balconies on a multifamily project. The case was resolved with a significant payment to the client.
- Represented general contractor in claims against its mechanical subcontractor regarding the defective installation of the HVAC system in a multifamily project.
- Successfully represented general contractor at trial on claim against subcontractor for excess costs of construction after subcontractor refused to perform its scope of work for the amount bid.
- Represented project owners and general contractors in claims related to the Americans with Disabilities Act.
- Represented numerous, owners, general contractors, subcontractors, and suppliers in payment disputes.
- Drafted and negotiated numerous general contractor/subcontractor agreements and general contractor/owner agreements.
